The kindest box in the whole house.

Dishes in a Day Arrival Card · getting started

WHO THIS SHEET IS FOR

Anyone facing a move who would like it to feel a little calmer. Everything here is free, prints on plain letter paper, works offline, and asks nothing back — no account, no email, no app. Print it, tape it, scribble on it. That is the whole requirement.

WHAT YOU NEED

- This card, packed on top of the kitchen's first box
- Soap, two towels, and the kettle you packed last

HOW TO USE IT

1. When the boxes arrive, find the box labeled KITCHEN 1 first, even before the bed boxes. This card will be taped on top.
2. Run the steps on the card in order. Each step takes minutes, not hours, because the point is dinner tonight, not a perfect kitchen.
3. When the last checkbox on the card is filled, you get to eat off plates tonight. Write the date under it and tape it into the binder's boxes tab.

One warm tip: If the day goes sideways, one plate, one cup, one pan is still a win. This card asks for a dinner, not a kitchen.

Companion to the Moving Without Meltdown guide · this sheet is part of the Calm Move Kit, a set of free printables for a peaceful household move.

CALM MOVE KIT

Dishes in a Day · Arrival Card

The kindest box in the house: everything you need to eat off plates tonight, before the rest of the kitchen exists.

Dishes in a Day

Tape this on top of the box marked KITCHEN 1. When its checkboxes are filled, dinner happens tonight — on real plates.

- ☐ Find the box: KITCHEN 1 — it travels on top of the kitchen stack, near the truck door.
- ☐ Wash: two plates, two cups, a pan, and one set of tools, using the sink kit (see below).
- ☐ Set a shelf: eyeline-high cupboard, plates first. Not perfect — put-away enough for the week.
- ☐ Kettle on: kettle on for coffee or tea. Steam on the window means this kitchen is not a stranger anymore.
- ☐ Serve something honest: takeout on your plates counts. The checkbox knows.

THE SINK KIT (packed last, taped loose on top)

- ☐ soap and one sponge
- ☐ two towels, both cleanish
- ☐ dish rack (a towel in a pinch)

IF THE DAY WENT SIDEWAYS

- ☐ one plate, one cup, one pan is a win
- ☐ paper plates tonight, zero guilt
- ☐ tomorrow is also a day
