First a bed, then a barista, then a bookshelf.

Unpack-Order Plan · getting started

WHO THIS SHEET IS FOR

Anyone facing a move who would like it to feel a little calmer. Everything here is free, prints on plain letter paper, works offline, and asks nothing back — no account, no email, no app. Print it, tape it, scribble on it. That is the whole requirement.

WHAT YOU NEED

- A pen
- Permission to let the garage stay full for two weeks

HOW TO USE IT

1. On the plan page, start only with the Day 1 row. Bed, nightstand kit, bathroom, and dishes. Nothing else counts yet.
2. Cross out or reorder rows to match your real life. Morning people unpack kitchens, night people unpack bedrooms.
3. On the first-boxes page, number your ten most important boxes and make sure each gets its own number on the box labels too.
4. Leave one room the 'closed box room'. Boxes go there when they arrive, and items are pulled out only as needed. It stays honest.

One warm tip: Empty tape guns and open scissors are how an unpacking day stalls. Yesterday's box gets taped before today's box gets opened.

Companion to the Moving Without Meltdown guide · this sheet is part of the Calm Move Kit, a set of free printables for a peaceful household move.

CALM MOVE KIT

Unpack-Order Plan

The first days, in kind-to-future-you order. Cross out what does not apply; nothing is graded.

WHEN	WHAT	DONE
DAY 1	THE SURVIVAL CREW
	Beds made, sheets on, everyone knows where they sleep tonight	☐
	Bathroom one: towels, soap, toothbrushes out of a labeled bag	☐
	Dishes and a pan out so dinner happens on plates tonight	☐
	Charger, one lamp, one cup of something warm	☐
DAYS 2–3	THE RHYTHM CREW
	Kitchen gets real: roomy counters clear, small appliances placed	☐
	Clothes: one working closet, clean-laundry bag emptied	☐
	Medicines to one cabinet, out of kid reach	☐
	Bills & papers to the binder's pocket, not to the counter	☐
FIRST WEEK	THE COMFORT CREW
	Kids' and pets' corners feel like theirs	☐
	Desk / office corner, chargers, printer	☐
	Living-room seats placed once, casually (no final rules yet)	☐
	One meal with actual guests (local friends count double)	☐
WEEKS 2–3	THE NEAT CREW
	Garage sorts; the closed-box room empties out	☐
	Wall hooks and picture frames happen now, not later	☐
	Cupboards get arranged like you actually cook	☐

CALM MOVE KIT

First-Boxes Page

Number the ten boxes that matter most, then make sure their labels say the same number.

HAND-CARRY (never the truck)

- ☐ Documents & valuables & the binder itself
- ☐ Medicines & phones & chargers
- ☐ One change of clothes each & swimsuit-if-a-pool
- ☐ Keys: old and new, plus garage clicker

THE “OPEN FIRST” BOX

- ☐ Toilet paper, paper towels & soap
- ☐ Coffee, kettle or moka pot, two mugs
- ☐ Sheets and pillows so bedtime is easy
- ☐ One box & marker for the beyond-disbelief bag

BOX #	FIRST BOX	ROOM	ARRIVED	OPEN
1	open first / survival kit		☐	☐
2	bed & sheets		☐	☐
3	kitchen: plates, pan, mugs		☐	☐
4	bath, bath: towels & soap		☐	☐
5	clothes for the first week		☐	☐
6	kid comfort stuff		☐	☐
7	pet bowls, food, leash		☐	☐
8	cleaning kit & trash bags		☐	☐
9	tools, screwdrivers, light bulbs		☐	☐
10	charger, extension board, surge strip		☐	☐